Change and continuity

How does life for ordinary people change after a major event? What changes happen more gradually? Why do things change at some times but not at others? How and why does life continue the same for different people at different times?

Significance

What impact do historical figures/ events have at the time and in the long-term? Why some events remembered but others are forgotten? What makes a person/ event significant?

Interpretations

How are events from the past remembered? Why do different people, writing at different times, have different versions of the same event? How do we know which interpretation to believe?

Cause and consequence

What causes major, world-changing events? Why do events happen at the time that they do, and not before or after? What impact do these events have on the future?

Similarity and difference

How do different events/ groups/ periods compare with each other? Do similar events always have the same impact? Do different events share similar causes?
