Supporting and promoting children's speech, language and communication development

Write a two side report (size 12 font), where you explain to parents the ways that the development of children's speech, language and communication (SLC) can be supported by parents and by early years professionals.

You could include:

- Definitions of key terms - speech, language, communication, development and milestones
- Examples of ways that children's SLC develop between the ages of 0-5 years
- Ways that parents/carers can support SLC development, including activity examples
- Ways that SLC is supported in early years settings
- A comparison of the ways SLC can be supported by parents/carers and by professionals in an early years settings
- An analysis of the importance in effective support for SLC communication, including the benefits of parent/carers and professional roles in developing this.
